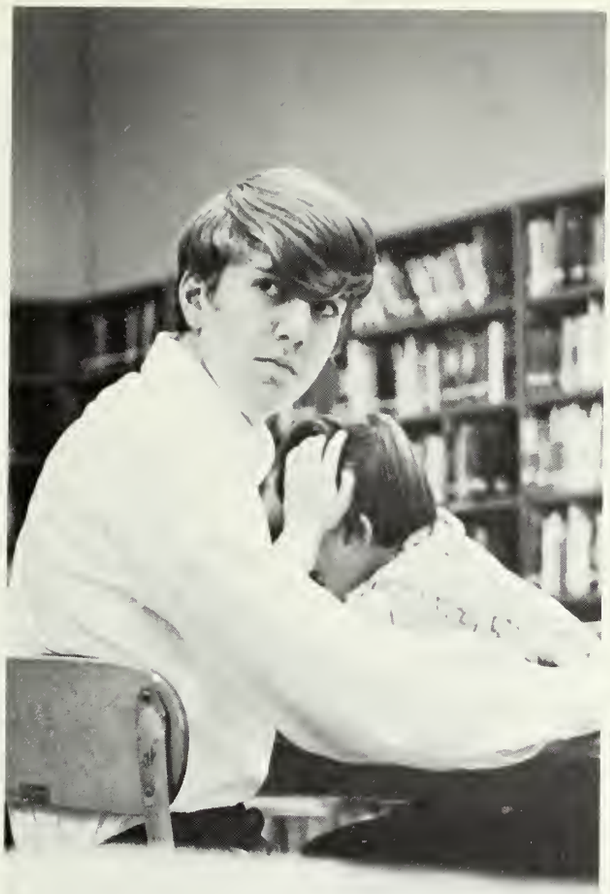
HORNETS!



'72
We '72 want a '72 Victory!

dedication

smile and the world smiles with you . . .

cry and you cry alone.

take each day seriously, but also weigh its humor . . .

but always remember —
the beauty of life,
is what you make it.

(photo — jen jensen)

these necessary values you have taught us in an imperfect world of hate and unrest . . .

you are invaluable among all others because you realize that "what is essential is invisible to the eye."
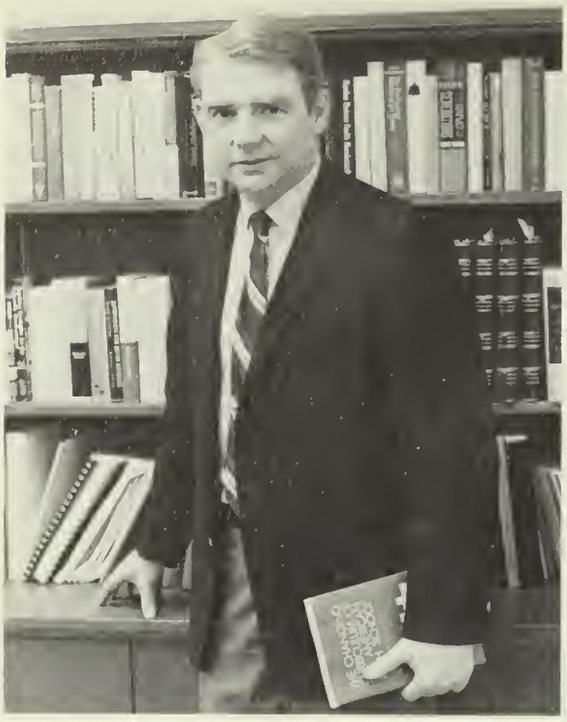
(saint — exupéry)
thank-you, mrs. dell



the issues being debated today may seem insignificant tomorrow. time has a way of mocking man for his lack of vision. it is important, therefore, to consider graduation from high school only one step in the process of self-identification. a wise man never considers his education complete.

mr. francis x. o'donoghue
superintendent of schools

the words of j.f.k. have great meaning for us today. he spoke these words at the 18th general assembly of the united nations, september 20, 1963:

"never before has man had such a capacity to control his own environment, to end thirst and hunger, to conquer poverty, and disease, to banish illiteracy and massive human misery.

"we have the power to make this the best generation of mankind in the history of the world — or to make it the last.
